Personal information is information that identifies you personally, either alone or in combination with other information available to us.

Your Consent. Please read this Privacy Policy carefully. By accessing or using this Site, you are agreeing to the terms of this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information as set forth in this Privacy Policy, you may not use this Site.

Information We Collect Automatically. If you browse through this Site or download information, our servers will automatically collect certain information from you. This information includes the: (a) name of the domain and host from which you access the Internet; (b) browser software you use and your operating system; and (c) Internet address of the website from which you linked directly to this Site. We will use information that we automatically collect to manage and improve our Site to make it as useful as possible for visitors like you. None of the information we automatically collect is tied to personal information you may provide to us.

Information You Choose to Provide to Us. Agiliti gathers and retains personal information about you only when voluntarily submitted by you. For example, if you choose to complete and submit a form located on our Site to register for an event or to register to receive information, we will retain the information you submit to respond to your inquiry, consider your request or fill your order. After we have taken the appropriate action, the information you submitted will be retained for our records. If we change the manner in which we use or retain personal information you provide to us, we will update this Privacy Policy for use in periodic marketing materials including any blog subscriptions or other mailing lists that you may subscribe to.

Generally, the information we collect using these Web technologies does not identify you personally. If, however, you have created a user identity, for example, by subscribing to our publications, we may link the information we collect using Web technologies to other information that identifies you personally.
